Lee Clerk of Court conducting mandatory clerk training Sept. 30

FORT MYERS, FLA (Sept.09, 2019) – The Lee County Clerk’s office will be closed the morning of Sept. 30 for mandatory training. The Clerk’s downtown Fort Myers offices will open at 12:45 p.m. and the Cape Coral and Bonita Springs offices will open at 1:15 p.m. All offices will close as scheduled at 5 p.m.

During the half-day program, deputy clerks will be trained on a variety of topics and professional trainers will stress the importance of teamwork necessary to provide service with excellence to our community.

“To ensure our customers are assisted by knowledgeable clerks, it’s critical that our employees fully understand how newly enacted laws and services affect the public,” said Linda Doggett, Lee County Clerk of Court. “Our goal is to guarantee everyone who visits our office continues to receive the quality customer service they’ve become to expect from us.”

Customers can conveniently view or file documents and court cases 24/7 at LeeClerk.org. Payments for court fines, child support, alimony, and tourist development tax can also be paid online.

For a list of office locations and services, visit LeeClerk.org or call 239-533-5000.

ABOUT THE CLERK’S OFFICE:
The Florida Constitution established the Clerk of the Circuit Court as a public trustee, responsible for safeguarding public records and public funds. Clerk Linda Doggett is directly elected by and accountable to Lee County residents. In addition to the role of Clerk of the Circuit Court, the Clerk is the County Recorder and Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, and the Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Auditor for Lee County.
